

BARCELONA 12 MARCH

INTERMEDIATE

MARATHON TRAINING PLAN TO HELP YOU REACH THE FINISH LINE

12 WEEK INTERMEDIATE MARATHON TRAINING PLAN

PACE GUIDE

SLOW	Very relaxed and easy pace.
NORMAL	Comfortable even pace, you're still able to chat with training partners at this speed.
FAST	Hard running, somewhat breathless, conversation is not even an option at this point.

Intermediate training plan for participants who have previously completed a marathon and continue to run regularly.

Please feel free to join gym-related sessions during your rest days, this could include spinning, circuits, yoga or pilates. However, please try not to over train as the running days are key to completing the marathon.

WEEK / DAY		MY TRAINING	PACE	NOTES
WEEK 01	MONDAY	Rest	—	When starting a training programme for the first time, it is better to do shorter runs more frequently than trying to rapidly increase the length of runs.
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy jog	Slow	Try finding a local park or flat paths
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	30 min, steady jog	Slow
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	45 min, comfortable jog	Normal	Try finding a local park with both footpaths and undulations
WEEK 02	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy recovery jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	30 min, steady jog	Normal
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	60 min, steady run	Normal	Comfortable, able to chat with training partner(s)
WEEK 03	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy recovery jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	40 min, easy jog	Steady
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	70 min, comfortable pace	Normal	Practise your hydration and nutrition plan

WEEK / DAY	MY TRAINING	PACE	NOTES
WEEK 04	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, steady jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	30 min, easy jog	Normal Relaxed controlled pace
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	90 min, comfortable jog	Normal Comfortable run, able to chat with training partner(s) Try and find a nice trail running route
WEEK 05	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	40 min, steady run	Normal
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	13 mile comfortable run	Normal Try finding a multi-terrain running route with a few undulations. Practise your hydration and nutrition plan
WEEK 06	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy recovery jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	Warm up, then 30 min brisk run, cool down	Fast Try and find a traffic-free flat running route
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	13 mile comfortable pace	Normal Relaxed and controlled pace throughout. Try finding a few buddies to train with
WEEK 07	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, steady jog	Normal
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	45 min, brisk run	Fast Slightly breathless pace Find a traffic-free route - maybe around a park
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	15 mile comfortable pace	Normal Relaxed and controlled like week 6. Try and find a traffic-free running route and a couple of running buddies
WEEK 08	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	40 min, steady jog	Normal Steady run, relaxed and controlled
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	25 min, easy jog	Normal
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	15 mile steady run	Normal Comfortable, run your own pace Practise your hydration and nutrition plan

WEEK / DAY		MY TRAINING	PACE	NOTES
WEEK 09	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy recovery jog	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	45 min, steady run	Slow
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	18 mile steady run	Normal	Enjoy the experience Practise your hydration and nutrition plan
WEEK 10	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy recovery run	Slow
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	45 min, steady run	Normal
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	15 mile easy run	Slow	Comfortable run, able to chat with training partner(s) Practise your hydration and nutrition plan
WEEK 11	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy jog	Slow	Recovery run
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	30 min, easy run	Slow
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	8 mile marathon pace run	Normal	Practise your hydration and nutrition plan
WEEK 12	MONDAY	Rest	—
	TUESDAY	30 min, easy run	Slow	Race week, relaxed week
	WEDNESDAY	Rest	—
	THURSDAY	20 min, steady jog	Slow
	FRIDAY	Rest	—
	SATURDAY	Rest	—
	SUNDAY	Race day, easy warm up and stretches	Normal	Good luck!

FINAL PREPARATIONS

You've been pounding the streets, gradually increasing your mileage in the rare sunshine! Now that the training is almost over, we're recommending a number of last minute tips for the Barcelona Marathon – some you'll have heard before, but maybe there's something here that'll make all the difference in the final weeks or on the day... Good luck!

PROTECT YOUR IMMUNE SYSTEM

Look after yourself in the final weeks to ensure that you don't catch a cold at the last minute. Eat healthily and get plenty of sleep.

STRESS-FREE

Avoid any unnecessary stress in the final week, and don't tire yourself out with activities such as gardening, partying or shopping. Relax, get lots of sleep and chill out.

GOALS

Set yourself achievable goals for the marathon – getting round without walking, etc.

ENERGY FOOD

Eat more carbohydrates than usual in the last 3 days before the marathon. Food such as pasta, rice, potatoes and fruit should make up approximately 70% of your diet, although you should avoid making any radical changes to your diet.

TOENAILS

Cut your toenails a couple of days before the race. If they're too long when you run, they are likely to end up bruised, black or hanging off. Don't cut them too short or too close to the race as this can also be very painful.

WEAR TRIED AND TESTED KIT

Run in something comfortable that you have worn during training. This includes everything from your running shoes and socks to your underwear and top. New kit may cause chafing, blisters or general discomfort.

PACK YOUR BAG

Get your kit ready the day before to avoid rushing around on the morning of the marathon. Pack clothes for different weather conditions and take all of your running essentials – race number, Vaseline, energy bars/gels, drink, sun cream, change of clothes, tissues, safety pins, plasters, timing chip.

PRE-RACE DINNER

Eat a large meal the night before that is high in carbohydrates and low in fibre. Choose food that you've eaten before a long run in the past. Now is not the time to be trying out new recipes!

DRINK UP

Drink plenty of fluids over the next few weeks and in particular the day before the marathon to ensure that you are properly hydrated.

SLEEP PATTERNS

Don't worry if you don't sleep very well the night before – most people don't! A combination of nerves and anticipation will keep you awake. As long as you rest in bed for 8 hours, you'll be fine.

WAKE UP

Remember to set 2 separate alarms to minimise the chance of sleeping in.

MARATHON BREAKFAST

Make sure you eat something on the morning of the marathon, even if it is too early for you to feel hungry. Eat a light meal consisting of foods that you have eaten previously before a long run. Drink some water or a sports drink, whichever you use consistently. Again, stick with what you know.

PREVENT CHAFING

Apply Vaseline to any areas where it is common to suffer chafing problems – under the arms, bra band, toes, etc. Be careful not to apply too much to the toes as this can make them slippery which could cause blisters. If you suffer from 'jogger's nipple', use plasters or surgical tape to prevent soreness and bleeding.

MEETING PLACES

Make sure you have arranged where to meet up with friends and family afterwards. You'll be too tired to spend time wandering around looking!

KEEP WARM AT THE START

Take something disposable to wear while waiting for the race to start, such as an old t-shirt or bin liner with holes cut out for your head and arms.

PACE YOURSELF

The first few miles are very crowded. Many people tire themselves out by dodging in and out of runners because they're behind on race plans. Maintain a slow, even pace, relax and enjoy the occasion.

STAY FOCUSED

Use mile markers as a reminder to review the way you are running - assess how you are feeling, your posture, breathing and pace.

RE-FUEL IMMEDIATELY

Drink plenty of fluid and eat something as soon as you can after crossing the finish line. You might not feel like eating but the sooner you do, the quicker your body will start to recover. Choose something easy to digest, such as a banana or sweets.

GIVE YOURSELF CREDIT

Make a conscious effort to congratulate or reward yourself after the event - the training has taken over your life for so long and completing a marathon is a fantastic achievement.

IN NAM
GRADUATES DESERT
CHALLENGE '17